PRINCE OF WALES TOASTMASTER AT ST GEORGE BANQUET

Main Address Made By Ambassador George Harvey

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Apr. 23.—The Prince of Wales was sufficiently recovered from his recent throat affection to preside at the banquet of the royal society of St. George at the Guild hall tonight and to make a short speech to a brilliant company, including the American ambassador and Mrs. Harvey, the Duke Devonshire, the French ambassador, the Earl of Selborne and the Lord Mayor.

In proposing the toast "England" the prince modestly expressed the difficulty he experienced to convey all that lay in his heart. Even if he could overcome the Englishman's natural reluctance to talk about England and could find words, he explained, "my larynx would refuse to utter the sentence."

Speaking of round up with the essential English word "home" the prince remarked that nobody could call him a stay-at-home; neither could he deny that his many friends outside of England always made him feel very much "at home." None the less, he added, "whenever I hear that word, I think of England."

Then alluding to the fact that the American ambassador was to follow him speaking the same toast, the prince said: "I hope it is not a case of counsel for the counsel for the defense. I do not think we need to be apprehensive. From the look in his eye and from what I have heard him say on many occasions, I suspect that Colonel Harvey, had he done from New England, has a soft corner in his heart for old England, too. I sit down confident that I can leave England's reputation in very safe and friendly hands."

Mr. Harvey Said in Part.

"Charish, indeed, would be the spirit of a New England man, which at such times withholds honor and reverence from old England, to which she owes her very being. Nor could she if she would, for both are true English, true to English principles, as against socialist theories, true to English Christian faith as opposed to Bolshevik pagan practices, true to the highest aspirations, which they share, and share alike—to raise higher and higher and bear further and further into the wilderness the torch of civilization."

"It is my high privilege to speak for the New England and however halting and inadequate may be my words, truly in my early environment may be found a certain measure of justification. My proud little native state of Vermont looks forth from her tree clad mountains and sparkling lakes upon her more populous sister commonwealths, serene in her consciousness of virtually undiluted ancestral stock. Not less than ninety per cent of her entire population are directly and exclusively descended from adventurous sons and daughters of this kingdom."

"Can any of your counties boast less alloy; if so, I point to you my native township (Peacham) which contains no man, woman or child of other than English blood—not one."

The ambassador said the next time he visited Peacham he would ask the people to form a society of St. George, to co-operate with the parent association, and he added humorously, "Becoming modestly entirely forbids to say who will be president."

Smilingly he exclaimed, "I have marquis Curzon's George authority that all Georges are saints." Peachamites would then seek permission to name the Prince of Wales as the chief patron of the society.

RAILROADS WIN IN ATTACK ON COUPON MILEAGE BOOK ORDER

Court Enjoins Commission from Enforcing Ruling

(By The Associated Press)
BOSTON, Mass., April 23.—The railroads of the east were successful in the federal court here today in their joint attack on the order of the interstate commerce commission of March 6 requiring the issue of non-transferable interchangeable script coupon mileage books at a discount of twenty per cent from their face value. A finding by Judges Mack, Brewster and Morris who on April 12 heard the case of the railroads and the government, enjoins the commission from enforcement of its order and relieves the railroads from the obligation of placing interchangeable mileage tickets of a face value of $90 and good for 2,500 miles on sale at $72. Commanding travelers have been especially interested in the interchangeable mileage privilege, which under a recent amendment of the transportation by congress, the interstate commerce commission believed it was authorized and required to put into effect on May 1.

Forty-seven railroads joined in the petition for an injunction to restrain the commission from carrying out its order. They contended that the commission erred in its interpretation of the amendment and that it is not power to require the issue of interchangeable mileage. The decision of the judges while upholding the position of the railroads in this respect does not uphold the further contention of the railroads that the statute is unconstitutional. It was understood that an appeal to the supreme court would be entered immediately on behalf of the interstate commerce commission. During argument of the case in federal court it was intimated that an appeal would be entered by one party or the other no matter what decision was rendered.

GATES HEIRESS IS GIVEN RIDE ON CALF WAGON

Part of Charivari Ceremony in the Town of St. Charles

(By The Associated Press)
ST. CHARLES, Ill., April 23.—Mrs. Dellora Angell, 84, heiress to an estate which is estimated at about $40,000,000 and who was married recently to Lester Norris, tonight was given a ride on what is known in St. Charles as the "calf wagon" as a part of a charivari ceremony by a party of friends. Mrs. Norris and her husband, who were married in California arrived in St. Charles Saturday night and went to the little cottage where they intend to live.

Childhood friends of Mrs. Norris remembered that as a girl, Mrs. Norris always had hurried to fires which from time to time disturbed the quiet ways of St. Charles and today they made special arrangements with mayor Roehlich to blow the fire whistle tonight. When the whistle was blown, Mrs. Norris ran to the door and there she was greeted by her friends who hurried her to the "calf wagon" truck on which cows are taken to market, and on which it is customary for brides of the town to be taken for rides.

Amid the beating of tom-toms and the clanging of pans, the truck headed a procession which passed thru the main street of the town, after which Mrs. Norris stopped at a soft drink parlor and bought "treats" for her friends.

SCHOONER BURNS AT WATER'S EDGE

(By The Associated Press)
MOBILE, Ala., April 23.—The American schooner Stranger, 610 tons, Captain Frank Vincenz, master, burned last night at 5 o'clock at the water's edge, forty miles off Sand Island light, according to information received here today by A. T. Newberry, the owner.

The master and crew of eight men took the small boats and rowed to Gulf Port, Mississippi, where they reported the burning of the vessel. The schooner was formerly the Portuguese bark Lacerar and was built in 1918. The loss is covered by insurance. The schooner sailed from Mobile Saturday with a cargo of 210,000 feet of lumber and was bound for Havana, Cuba.

CHAUNCEY DEPEW GETS GREETINGS ON 89TH BIRTHDAY

No Fads, No Monkey Glands Among Reasons for Longevity

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 23.—Birth-day greetings from President and Mrs. Harding King George of England and scores of other friends found their way to Chauncey M. Depew's flower-banked office today as he celebrated the eighty-ninth anniversary of his birth with a good hard day's work.

"The eighties are a wonderful decade but I look for calmer times in the nineties," said the famous octogenarian, as he stood on the threshold of the Nonagenarian class with the assertion that he expected to pass the century mark.

His formula for longevity was simple.

"No fads, no medicine, no monkey glands, no dead sure life giving serums of any kind, a good wife and a sensible diet and not much of it. This is the important thing—not much of it. I have very little time for exercise but I believe the real success of recreation is not eighteen holes of golf, but being able to change from your daily vocation to your hobby."

"My great recreation in life—because it employs other cells of my brain than those I use for business—is making speeches. I used to make one every night and I have talked volumes of published speeches."

The venerable chairman of the board of the New York Central Railroad and former statesman, predicted that President Harding would come to be known as "the advance agent of prosperity."

"I think Harding has made good," he said. "His only misfortune has been in having a congress that was not properly led, his renomination depends a great deal on prosperity and prosperity in my opinion is here to stay and grow." The message from President and Mrs. Harding which came with a great bouquet of roses, read: With birthday greetings and all good wishes.

The following was from King George: "The King having learned that today is the anniversary of your birthday, offers you his hearty congratulations and trusts that you are enjoying your usual health."

GUIDING RULE OF U. S. AT PEACE CONFERENCE

(By The Associated Press)
LAUSANNE, April 23.—Safeguarding of the legitimate national interests of the United States and of the principle of commercial opportunity for all nations was officially set forth today as guiding rule of American representatives when a near-peace conference resumed its labors in an endeavor to restore peace between the allied powers and Turkey and between Greece and Turkey.

Joseph C. Grey, minister to Switzerland, and head of the delegation made this clear in a brief inaugural speech following similar addresses by leaders of the other delegations. The conference then divided itself into three committees of which will take up subjects in dispute and tomorrow will discuss on concrete topics which will be begun.

Minister Grey said the United States welcomed the resumption of the conference. It had recognized on a substantial basis; an understanding had already been reached on a variety of important subjects and upon this firm foundation the United States expected soon to see erected that edifice of a just and stable peace for which the world was waiting with eagerness. Of the position of the American representatives, he said:

"We are here for this same purpose and in the same capacity as before the adjournment, participating not on the footing of a belligerent against Turkey nor as a party to the treaty of peace under negotiation between the allied powers and Turkey, but none the less in a full capacity with full authorization and competence to speak of behalf of the government of the United States."

President To Address Associated Press Men

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 23.—Departure of President Harding from Washington tonight for New York, where he will speak tomorrow at the annual luncheon of the members of the association press marked the real beginning of a series of speaking trips to be made by the executive during the spring and summer to various parts of the country.

Through these addresses, of which about fifteen will be made during a trans-continental tour starting in June, the chief executive expected to account for his stewardship of administrative affairs, to re-state and affirm the purpose of his administration and to announce and explain the policies he plans to pursue during the remainder of his tenure of office.

White house officials said it is customary to give no indication of the nature of the address Mr. Harding will make tomorrow at the Associated Press luncheon which will be attended by a large proportion of the newspaper editors and publishers of the country. The president has been at work on his speech for several days and today went over it with several members of his cabinet, including secretary Hughes, indicating that he considers it of extreme importance.

The luncheon at which the president will speak is to be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel and is the principal event on the executive's program for the day in New York. He plans to spend only about twenty hours in the metropolis, arriving in the city early tomorrow by special train and leaving tomorrow midnight on the return trip.

The president will be accompanied by Mrs. Harding, George B. Christian Jr. his secretary, Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, his personal physician, and chairman Lasker of the shipping board. He plans to spend the morning quietly at his hotel after breakfast on the train. After the luncheon, at which in addition to speaking, he will renew acquaintances with a number of fellow editors, he will return to his hotel suite, probably to spend the late afternoon in receiving callers. It is expected that he and Mrs. Harding will attend the theatre in the evening going from there to the station to board their train.

The visit to New York will be the first the president has made to that city since September 1921, when he spent a few hours there in the course of a vacation trip aboard the Mayflower. The address at the Associated Press luncheon will be the first he has made in New York since early in his administration.

The reason for his statement, he said, was that some newspapers had assumed in editorials that he had expressed an opinion in favor of unrestricted immigration at the stockholders meeting of the United States Steel Corporation last week. There was no justification he asserted, for that which was based on a misinterpretation from a lack of knowledge as to exactly what he said at that time.

The part of his speech which had been misconstrued, he pointed out, was the following, which he read from the stenographic minutes of the meeting: "You are aware of the fact that in recent years congress has passed a law which restricts immigration. In my opinion, the law as passed was one of the worst things this country has ever done for itself economically."

He pointed out that the workers as passed had evidently been overlooked by both who had assumed he was in favor of unrestricted immigration.

"I have never entertained, nor do I now entertain the opinion that there should be no restriction in regard to immigration," he emphasized.

BRUNDAGE SAYS HE WILL GO THRU WITH CIVIL SUITS

Will Carry on Cases Against Small and Former Treasurers

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Ill., April 23.—Edward J. Brundage attorney general of Illinois, today reiterated his determination to prosecute the civil suits instituted against Governor Len Small and other cover $2,000,000 interest on state funds.

Replying to a letter from L. G. Newton, mayor of Vienna Ill., who had written to Mr. Brundage expressing himself as "disgusted" with what he called "a campaign of persecution with political motives" the attorney general wrote:

"An effort has been made to lead the public to believe that this litigation is 'persecution.' I have no feud with Governor Small nor no personal animosity toward him. I have, however, assumed an oath of office, and when evidence is laid before me which I deem right and proper for the action I would be recreant to my public trust should I unheed this evidence."

The civil suits will continue and must be prosecuted with more success as the public has a direct interest in over $2,000,000 of interest on public money unlawfully withheld by Small and his associates from the people.

If the people of southern Illinois are disgusted with the persecution of this character, I am of the belief that the people of that vicinity do not understand the nature of the litigation.

MUSSOLINI ACCEPTS CABINET RESIGNATIONS

(By The Associated Press)
ROME, April 23.—Premier Mussolini has accepted the resignation of the cabinet ministers belonging to the popular party.

In a letter to Steffano Cavazzoni accepting the resignations of the ministers, premier Mussolini says:

"If my government were the results of one of the customary or traditional parliamentary crises, the resolution voted by the parliamentary group of the popular party might in some degree have satisfied me. Today it does not, and you can easily understand the reasons."

"It is not worth my while to undertake the difficult task of interpreting a resolution voted by the most violent elements of the fascist."

"I find myself concerned with a rather obscure document, which does not modify the substance of the vote taken by the congress at Turin, which, according to the evidence of the popular deputies who participated therein was essentially an anti-fascist gathering."

The premier concludes by thanking Signor Cavazzoni and his colleagues under secretaries Vassallo, Mihani and Gronchi for their sympathy in the past.

STEEL TRUST HEAD SAYS ADDRESS HAS BEEN MISQUOTED

Says He is Not in Favor of Unrestricted Immigration

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 23.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, denied today that he was in favor of unrestricted immigration.

"On the contrary," he said in a statement to newspaper men, "I believe there should be restrictions. I do not think our immigration laws should permit immigration that could reasonably be construed as inimicable to domestic labor of any kind, to our government, or to the public welfare."

"If the public should believe merely that I favor an unlimited immigration it might be harmful to the steel industry, to the masses of workmen and to the general public."

The reason for his statement, he said, was that some newspapers had assumed in editorials that he had expressed an opinion in favor of unrestricted immigration at the stockholders meeting of the United States Steel Corporation last week. There was no justification he asserted, for that which was based on a misinterpretation from a lack of knowledge as to exactly what he said at that time.

SUSPECT IN MURDER OF JEWISH RABBI IS UNDER ARREST

Youth Giving Name as M. G. Richardson Arrested at Phoenix

(By The Associated Press)
PHOENIX, Arizona, April 23.—A 19 year old youth giving his name as M. G. Richardson, arrested here this morning for investigation has confessed the killing of Rabbi Alfred G. Lafee, at San Francisco about three weeks ago, police said late this afternoon. A diary found in his possession, police say, definitely connected him with the crime.

Notations in the diary found on Richardson's person, led officers to question him regarding the attack on the San Francisco rabbi. At first the youth denied any knowledge of the crime, but later admitted that he dealt the death blow. J. J. McGrath, chief of detectives said, Richardson told the police, they said, that he was a deserter from the Goat Island Navy yard.

In the diary taken from Richardson's person and later made public by the police, a long entry under date of April 4, 1923, headed "Aboard U. S. S. SELECTION OF JURY IN LUNDIN TRIAL IS SLOW

Only Two Had Been Accepted Tentatively Monday

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 23.—Two jurors had been accepted tentatively both sides when court adjourned today in the trial of Fred Lundin and twenty-one co-defendants charged with defrauding the Chicago board of education of $1,000,000 in school funds.

Thomas Novotney, a venireman, was excused after he admitted that he was a strong supporter of Attorney General Brundage and that it would be hard to convict him of the innocence of the defendants.

Efforts to secure a jury will be resumed Wednesday. There will be no court session tomorrow so that Judge Charles A. McDonald may attend a funeral.

SUSPECTS IN MAIL ROBBERY RELEASED

(By The Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 23.—Four of the nine men arrested on suspicion last week in connection with the $2,393,367 mail robbery here April 2, were released late today after federal warrants were issued against the other five. United States Commissioner Atkins fixed the bonds of the quintet at $25,000 each.

Identification of $1,700 of liberty bonds among the loot recovered by postal inspectors and city detectives at the home of William F. Doering, former convict, in St. Louis county last Thursday as being the property of the First National Bank of Blandville, Ill., led the authorities to express the belief that Doering and confederates may have had some connection with a robbery of that bank.

YOUTHFUL MARRIED COUPLES CALLED TO TESTIFY IN PROBE

Judge Dingeman Has Started His Investigations

(By The Associated Press)
ST. JOSEPH, Mich., April 23.—Michigan's grand jury investigation of charges of immorality at Benjamin Purnell's Israelite colony of the house of David opened today with fourteen young brides and fourteen boy bridegrooms on hand to explain their sudden decision to be married in two group weddings last week.

The first witness—a girl bride—was on the witness stand before Judge Harry Dingeman of Detroit, the one man grand jury, for more than three hours undergoing a grueling examination by Attorney General Andrew A. Aughterty, Assistant Attorney General Quay and George Bookwalter, assistant prosecutor of Berrien county.

The girl whose age was given in the marriage license as 17, is actually only 13 years old, according to county records. It was reported among those waiting their turn to be questioned was a little girl who appeared no older, and beside her a youthful husband who appeared to be not more than fourteen or fifteen at the most.

The spectacle outside the council chamber of the St. Joseph city hall, where the investigation is being held, was unique. In a dimly lighted corridor three long rows of folding seats had been placed for the young married persons and half a dozen older members of the cult, who guarded their charges closely from inquisitive reporters and photographers.

In supreme command was Mary Ranger, one time school mistress and custodian of the younger children of the colony, who, according to evidence in recent court hearings, presided over the "far eighty" outlying farm where "King" Benjamin sent his youthful disciples to be trained in the precepts of the faith. There, girls remained until they were old enough to join the retinue of girls at Shiloh, the big cement and stone residence of Benjamin and Queen Mary, his wife, while the boys remained at the farm, until called to take up their residence at Jerusalem or Bethlehem or in the cottages of the outlying farms.

Ranged along the benches beside her—so that her presence interposed a shield at the entrance of the corridor to bar the prying "gentiles" of the outside world, was the colonies' newlyweds. The girls, well dressed, with faces powdered and hair neatly arranged in the latest mode, appeared no different than any young group of young girls of high school age. The only difference between them and a group of laughing high school girls who gathered on the stairs to stare, was that the brides were more subdued.

TORNADO KILLS ONE IN NEBRASKA

(By The Associated Press)
BEATRICE, Neb., April 23.—Southeastern Gage county was swept by a tornado late today which caused one fatality and heavy damage.

Evelyn, the three old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brunsback, five miles southeast of Barnston, was killed when the farm house was turned over by the wind. Both Mr. and Mrs. Brunsback were seriously injured and another child, an infant was hurt. The farm buildings were practically wrecked.

At the Frank Fisher farm, two miles from the Brunsback homestead, every building was razed. Mrs. Fisher was at home alone, took refuge in a small cave and escaped injury.

The high wind which attained a terrific velocity, was confined to a narrow path in the district south and east of Barnston. Buildings were unroofed, crops down and fields were badly washed.

MANY WEAR GLASSES IN UNITED STATES

St. Louis, Mo., April 23.—Three persons out of every ten in America are wearing glasses today and it is said that seven of every ten should be wearing them, declared Dr. R. C. Augustine of Aurora, Illinois, extension worker for the Missouri optometrist association, in an address here today. He is attending the annual convention of the association.

This almost universal need for glasses in modern civilized life is due largely to the constant use of the eyes at close range, he added.

CONSOLIDATION OF WESTERN R. R. TO BE CONSIDERED

Expect Many at Kansas City Conference Tomorrow

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 23.—Railroad, public service and utilities commissions of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma plan to send representatives to a conference here Wednesday on the proposed consolidation of western railroads, an interstate commerce commission hearing on which will be held here April 26.

Clyde M. Reed, chairman of the Kansas public utilities commission said here tonight he had received favorable replies from these states to telegrams which he had sent, asking the conference. Mr. Reed is here formulating testimony to present before the interstate commerce commission in opposition to the proposed merger.

"The Minnesota, Nebraska, and South Dakota railroad commissions as well as the Kansas public utilities commission, are known to me to be opposed to the consolidation plan," Mr. Reed declared. "I do not know definitely how the others stand. The purpose of the meeting is to crush the consolidation of railroads west of the Mississippi into seven large systems."

"A large number of organizations of the middle west will appear before the interstate commerce commission to oppose the merger. These will include representation from Kansas City, Mo.; Kansas City, Kans.; Leavenworth, Kansas; Omaha, Neb.; Lincoln, Neb.; Sioux City, Iowa; Atchison, Kansas; and St. Joseph, Mo., besides the Kansas public utilities commission."

"Undoubtedly the strenuous opposition which has been not yet rendered will be brought out at the Kansas City hearing, which begins Thursday."

Opponents to consolidation plan to keep it moving off the market for western products to their disadvantage, Mr. Reed asserted. The plan is designated to make Chicago the center of the western system and would tend to centralize the market there which is now available to the large cities of the Missouri valley. The merger, he said, would reduce industrial and commercial advantages now enjoyed by their cities.

"Although the territory west of the Mississippi comprises two thirds the area of the United States," Mr. Reed said, "the merger plan would reduce the number of its competitive railroads to seven systems. As the plan is to consolidate the railroads of the entire country into nineteen systems this appears distinctly disadvantageous to the western territory and leaves out of consideration its enormously increased productivity."

Tikhon to electrical shock, declaration that he recognizes the soviet government as Russia's legal government and also communist doctrines as compatible with the highest religious principles.

a federal inquiry of the Herrin massacre. Such an investigation will carry with it a far greater chance of ferreting out the guilty because local influences will not have the same weight that attaches to a county or a state inquiry.

In conjunction with the annual encampment of the Spanish War veterans the soldier's hospital is to be dedicated. At that time, unless his plans fail, Jacksonville will be the mecca of thousands of visitors. The purpose is to have a number of men here of national reputation, and various features of the program will attract the attention and interest of people from a wide area.

Committees are at work in preparation for these events and should have the hearty co-operation of the people as a whole.

In a bill sponsored by Senator Kossinger the parole system of Illinois is attacked. While the parole system has merit, there is good reason for the criticism of methods followed. It is a fact abundantly proven by the records that time and time again hardened criminals are convicted and sent to the penitentiary only to be turned loose again on society apparently in a very short time.

The criminals are often exemplary and well behaved in prison for the very purpose of the sooner gaining release to practice the same old tricks.

Chauncey DePew who at eighty-nine is still vigorous, declares that his ability to keep from worrying and his moderation in all things are responsible for his age and continued activity. The former senator goes on to say that he expects to live to be one hundred.

Almost every person of great age who attempts to give the reason presents a different view of the big subject. After all, every one knows that there is no rule, and that the age of which one lives depends upon individual conditions and surroundings. Just as people of middle life vary in matters of diet, in physical and intellectual strength, and in their ways of living.

YOUR SPRING GARDEN.

To have a nice spring garden you do not need any tools. I'll tell you all you need to do. Just follow out these rules: Of course you need a small back yard to carry out your plans; one where the ground is very hard and full of old tin cans. Then get a spade, a rake, a hoe, a cultivator, too; a sprinkling can, you'll need it so, before the summer's through. Be sure there is a sufficient shade 'twixt garden and the sky; for if there's not I am afraid the sun might bake it dry. Now, next take off your coat and vest, remove your outside shirt, pick up the tool that looks the best and start to throw the dirt. You may find out it hurts your back and makes the blisters come, but that is nothing; don't give back, you may save quite a sum. And when you're tired from stooping down, perhaps you'll change your plan, concluding you must go down town "got to see a man." And when the man you "hire" succeeds in finishing the beds, tuck in ten dollars worth of seeds and cover up their heads. Now, all you have to do is wait until your plants are born. The frost may come a little late or cut worms get your corn; your cabbage may be covered over with various kinds of slugs; and you may spend a few pinches more to kill potato bugs; and if, in your tomato patch, there's something green that squirms, you'll find on the first glance you snatch that all of them "have worms." But don't get sore and squirm and rant at these small miscreant deeds; you'll get some things you didn't plant; a lovely crop of weeds. As when in autumn's ruddy glow you figure on the cost, you're sure to be surprised, you know, how little you have lost; you're only out your surplus tin and all your spare time labor, but you have had a garden in and you can tell your neighbor that gardening is just the stuff to make the old world sing; then go down town and buy enough to carry you till spring.

HONK! HONK! NEA.

Henry Ford breaks his record again—turns out 37,793 passenger cars and trucks in one week. All these are for sale in our country. The figure does not include production of Ford's plants in Canada and abroad. Nor does it include cars for export.

Sixty-three hundred machines a day! Thirteen a minute, on the basis of an eight hour day. From the first of the year to April 1, American factories made 867,628 passenger cars, and trucks.

The auto industry is estimating that all factories this year will manufacture between three and four million cars.

Over 11 million private motor cars and nearly a million and a half trucks and commercial cars are now in service.

Experts say that the "saturation point" of the auto in America will be 20 million machines. This is the potential market ahead of the makers, scheduled to be reached in 1930. Twenty million cars will mean one for every six Americans. By crowding, the whole nation will be able to go motoring at the same time.

Whether auto registrations will ever exceed 20 millions in our country will depend on what happens to average prosperity, also on how quickly the investors perfect inexpensive fool-proof airplanes that will take us off the road and into the air.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

By Berton Braley

THE Little Jay Town, says Ed Vance Cook Is only found in the story book. And every village that he has seen Is smart and dapper and new and clean. And the people revel in city dress. With metropolitan worldliness; Well, most of what he has said is true But—Ed's forgotten a town or two.

AS long as you stick to the broad highway The towns are smart and the towns are gay. But follow the by-roads now and then And You'll find they are something else again; For back in the woods where the tree-frogs call The Little Jay Town isn't gone at all. The hayseeds linger, the rubes are thick And the average citizen's a hick.

THERE shall you find as you wander in Susponders held with a safety pin. The hickory shirt and the congress boots And thick, old-fashioned black Sunday suits; There does the celluloid collar shine As it did in the season of ninety-nine, And the flannel petticoat holds its own. And silken stockings are quite unknown.

WE'RE growing modern, and that's a fact. But here and there you will find intact The spot where the Little Jay Town survives. Where people peacefully live their lives. Grow up and marry and settle down—Congenital hicks in a true Jay town. No rube towns left? If Ed will come Along with me I will show him some.

A DOG WITH A HISTORY

The ranks of Jacksonville dogs have been augmented by the coming of a real aristocrat, Miss Tip. She has been making her home with Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Scott for some time and intends to spend an indefinite time with them.

Miss Tip is originally from New York, where she spent her puppyhood days. She is of blue-blooded lineage, her ancestors being members of the well known fox-terrier family of New York, London, Chicago and many other places. For the past ten years of her life she has traveled with show companies, recently coming to this city with the Mutt and Jeff company. During her travels she has picked up all of the interesting stage tricks, which she shows beautifully. One other accomplishment that all of the so-called "superior animals" do not possess is hers, for she can keep perfect time to the music while waltzing.

While traveling, Miss Tip spent her time in a neat little traveling bag with ventilated ends which was carried in the coach by her friends. When this traveling bag was opened yesterday, to be shown, the dog tried to get inside, evidently thinking that it was again time to "hit the road."

Tip is thirteen years old, an advanced age when it is remembered that the average life of her kind is only about eight or nine years. However, when she was interviewed yesterday she seemed as lively and frolicsome as though she had just begun to tread the Tinseltown boards.

Miss Tip's life story is a sad one. When she came to this city she was suffering from a sarcoma tumor. On account of this condition and her advanced age, those whom she had considered her friends decided to have her operated, and brought her to Dr. Scott. The doctor's heart weakened, so, instead of the chloroform bottle, the little animal was operated on and is well and has a happy home. Miss Tip has many calls every day from her friends at Dr. Scott's office.

CARD OF THANKS. I wish to extend my sincere appreciation of the many kindnesses shown me by neighbors, friends, Harmony Lodge No. 3 A. F. & M. I. O. O. F. and M. W. A., during the recent loss of my dear father.

250 TO JOIN M. W. A. OF COUNTY TONIGHT

Northminster Ladies Prepare for 400 at Banquet—1,000 Expected at Auto Inn—Gubernatorial Candidate Will be Principal Speaker.

At least a thousand members of the Modern Woodmen of America from this city and county are expected to be at the Auto Inn this evening for the adoption ceremonies of a class of about 250 new members. The work will be put on by the team and staff from Camp No. 912 of this city, under the direction of the district deputy, Charles Knollenberg.

The candidates and members will meet at 5:30 this evening at Woodman hall on the south side of the square. They will then go to Northminster church, where a banquet will be served. Promotions are being made for four hundred at the tables in the church dining room. The crowd will be accommodated in two sections.

If the weather is at all favorable, the various camps in the country will send large delegations. Waverly is expecting to send sixty to seventy members and candidates, if the roads are good. Three hundred applications for membership have been received during the past three months of special effort in the county. About fifty of these are in Jacksonville.

The arrangements for the adoption this evening are being made by a special committee composed of James A. Scott, chairman, Vincent Vieira and Joseph Gomes. The chief inspector of the state organization, George Hattenbuehler of Bloomington, will be present and assist in the work. C. G. Townley state deputy from Macomb, will also have part in the ceremonies.

The principal speaker for the evening will be S. S. Tanner of Minier, director of the state Modern Woodmen. Mr. Tanner is a candidate for the republican nomination for governor in 1924, and is recognized as one of the most influential republicans in state.

Following the banquet at Northminster, the candidates and members will go to the Auto Inn, where the adoption rites will be celebrated. It is expected that Mr. Tanner will speak at the banquet, and also at the Auto Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dowdall of Lincoln, arrived in the city Saturday, to attend the funeral of Mrs. D. Whalen.

Women always suffer because of man's foolish infatuations; they pay the price for his excesses; they are the victims of his jealousy and perfidy. No discrimination is made whether she be the right woman or 'The Wrong Woman.' She is the victim of circumstances. See

THE WRONG WOMAN—you never saw a plot like this—fast moving action, plots, and counter plots, a moral in every plot. A tense climax. Solving a crime mystery. An accurate dramatic triumph treating some of life's bigger problems.

The story demonstrates a human emotion true to life, in which innocent people are made the victim of another's weaknesses. Many of us have known the sorrow of being made the victim of events, all have felt the false accusations made by others. The story therefore, has a very human appeal to all of us.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Limestone Prices.

The farmers of our county who expect to use limestone might very well take advantage of the attractively delivered prices now offered and have limestone sent at once, unload it where it will be handy when needed later. The limestone can be laid down at $1.90 per ton on all roads except the C. B. & Q. This is considerably under the former market price.

Renaming the Soybean.

A competent committee has recommended the following names:

Midwest for medium yellow, Hollybrook, Mongol, Perley Mongol and Roosevelt.

Peking for Peking, Sable and Essex.

Ebony for Ebony and Black Beauty.

Wisconsin Black for Pedigreed Black, Wisconsin Pedigreed Black, Early Wisconsin Black, Wisconsin Early Black.

Its San for Its San, Medium Early Yellow, Early Yellow.

Wool Pool.

Last year those who pooled were quite fortunate. The average price to the grower was 347 net; the average price offered at shearing time 37; the increase in price obtained thru the pool .077; the total increase in the 145,000,805 pounds marketed thru the pool in Illinois was $11,226.99.

Vaccinating Their Own Hogs.

Farmers in Fulton county had over 50,000 head of hogs vaccinated by the farmers themselves last year with only one break and that was checked at the beginning. Ten counties in the state have pooled their orders for 10,000 cubic centimeters of serum and expect to carry it at the Farm Bureau offices. They are going to deliver that to the farm bureau members at 90 cents per hundred cash with order. They are also supplying vaccinating instruments at $6 per set.

TO BRYAN.

Ah, righteous prophet of God's law! Of which his children stand in awe; Thy silvery eloquence doth tell Of that glorious home wherein to dwell.

No politics or strife shall be In that place of blessed eternity; Wherein each angel shall reclaim All deeds expounded in holy fame. Oh, how many are born to rust, In the wilderness of oblivion's dust! How could it be, of such a host? Who faced men like an open sea.

DEDICATED NEW CHURCH AT BARROW

New Baptist Edifice Was Dedicated Sunday — Other Greene County News.

White Hall, April 23.—Dr. E. P. Brand of Decatur, state secretary and Rev. Joseph Jenkins of Jerseyville, missionary evangelist of the Baptist church, were Saturday guests of Rev. L. E. Ellison, pastor of the First Baptist church. They were leading participants in the dedication of the new Baptist church at Barrow Sunday. The structure replaces the one destroyed by fire about two years ago, and is one of the most modern rural churches of Greene county. This county has twenty-six churches of the Baptist faith, of which only fourteen are active bodies. The situation discloses the decadence of the rural church because of lack of the necessary financial support to keep an active minister on the field regularly for at least services each Sunday. Many country people, as well as town folks, worship by radio by listening to high class church services in distant cities in their homes, where they are not molested with a collection plate. Again town churches are proving more of an attraction to the rural population by the tendency to give variety in other ways making the services attractive, enabling the town churches to command high pulpit talent. The total membership of the Baptist churches in Greene county is 4,000, this being the leading religious denomination in the county by a large plurality. The Baptists are very active at White Hall and Roodhouse, as well as at Carrollton and in some of the rural churches such as Barrow, Patterson and Walkerville. The new church at White Hall is expected to be ready for dedication by the middle of June.

Raymond B. Pearce has received his commission as postmaster at White Hall, and will enter upon the duties May 1.

Seth N. Griswold, Marcus North, Justice E. L. Wendell, Dr. A. W. Foreman and Harold Vossell were Sunday callers at the Russell home at Bluffdale, the center of interest among the sages of Greene county, where is collected one of the most valuable exhibits of rare books and manuscripts in the state. It has been arranged to place in the new library pictures of William and Spencer Russell, grandfather and father of the present Hugh and William Russell, occupants of the home place.

Miss Mattie Ballard has arrived from Mitchell, S. D., to be the guest of relatives for several weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. B. P. Drake have taken up their residence in Palmyra for the summer.

Mrs. Minnie Smith of Palmyra was a Sunday guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan.

Mrs. Mary Graves spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Ellen Allen, east of Roodhouse.

Firestone Prices on Fabric and Cord Passenger Car Tires and Tubes, also Solid and Pneumatic Truck Tires Will Advance May 1st

The postponement of this price revision is possible only because of our realization of the price danger in the British Crude Rubber Restriction Act which became effective November 1, 1922. We were fortunate in our rubber purchases before the Restriction Act increased the price of crude rubber 160%.

We have always endeavored to champion the cause of better made tires delivered at lowest cost to the tire user by economic manufacturing and distribution. And we are glad of the opportunity to give the car-owner the additional saving at this time.

Firestone Cords embody certain special processes which result in their producing mileage records, heretofore unheard-of in the industry. Among the more important of these superior methods are blending, tempering, air-bag cure and double gum-dipping.

Firestone Dealers are co-operating with us in our movement to supply your needs at present prices as long as their stock lasts and we have advised our dealers that we will supply them with additional tires this month only so far as our output will permit.

See the nearest Firestone Dealer. Purchase a set of these Gum-Dipped Cords. Prove for yourself their remarkable mileage advantages and easy riding qualities.

EARLY DAYS OF STEAMERS

Superiority Over Sails Quickly Proved—How the Term "Packet" Came to Be Applied.

The passenger ships employed in crossing the Atlantic in 1850 were mostly sidewheelers—the screw propellers for steamships being practically still in the experimental stage at that time. To speak roughly, the "rifles" saw the iron screw replacing the wooden paddle steamer.

The term "packet" was applied both to sailing ships and to steamers and about the same period it was sometimes used for the name of steamship lines or companies—such as, for example, the "St. George Steam Packet company." The "City of Dublin Steam Packet company." Steam vessels were employed at a very early date upon the mail services, for, besides being very much quicker than the sailing vessels, they were practically independent of the direction of the wind, and to a considerable extent of the weather; consequently the regularity of their passages contrasted very favorably with the irregular times kept by the sailing vessels.

The mail service across the Irish channel, between Holyhead and Dublin, was especially uncertain in the days of the sailing packets, frequently occupying three or four days, and occasionally as many as seven or nine days. All this was altered when in 1821 the steamers Royal Sovereign and Meteor were placed on the service. The advantages were so apparent that steam mail packets between Great Britain and the Continent, and on many other services, were soon established.

How the word "packet" came to be applied to a vessel is explained in the dictionary: "Packet, 1. A little pack or small package. 2. A bundle, as of letters; hence, a mail. 3. Hence, a fast ship or boat, originally one under government control, for conveying mails and passengers; at stated times, a vessel making regular trips; also, formerly a passenger boat on a canal."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

ORIGIN OF MAYAS UNKNOWN

Variety of Opinions Held, but No Positive Proof Has Ever Been Brought Forward.

Archaeologists have wrangled warmly as to where the Mayas came from. Some said they must have reached Yucatan from the south, some said from the north. The resemblance of their hieroglyphs and some of their architecture and carving to those of Assyria and Egypt led to the conjecture that the founders of the nation were Egyptians or Assyrians. But if so, how did they get to Central America? On the other hand, particular admirers of Maya art, who declare it superior to that of the Egyptians, have advanced the bold theory that the civilization of Yucatan was the parent of that of Egypt—some American Columbus having evidently sailed over and discovered Africa. And then again the Atlantis fans, who believe with Plato and others of the ancients that a great continent was once overwhelmed gradually by what is now the Atlantic ocean, say that the Maya and Toltec civilizations are no mystery to them, inasmuch as they have esoteric information to the effect that they were founded by cultured refugees from the catastrophe of Atlantis, which they identify with Noah's flood and other inundations mentioned in the scriptures of ancient religions.

Hill Lent Itself to Building.

A most interesting and picturesque series of additions was added to a home in one of the hillside districts of California. In this case a man and his wife had built quite close to the slope of a hill, but with no thought of additions. Later, when they wished to expand, they discovered that by good luck rather than by good design, the easiest as well as the most attractive direction in which to grow was up the hill. By adding a short inclosed stairway they were lifted high enough to build three most charming rooms. The center one of this group is a living room and in the middle of it, at the back, rises, seemingly out of the ground, a fine sturdy stone chimney with a splendid fireplace.

In a Manner of Speaking.

The Browns lived in a third-story apartment. Mr. Brown, coming home one evening, found his better half in an excited frame of mind. She hastened to tell him of an experience she had just had. Smelling smoke in a room off the light court, she thought the building was on fire, and proceeded: "I tore down the front stairs, and found everything all right there; then I tore down the back stairs, and found no sign of fire there."

Here Mr. B. interrupted long enough to inquire: "If you tore down both the front stairs and the back stairs, how in the world did you get back up here?" Brown got no dinner that evening.

Foster-Child of United States.

Col. Hugh Mercer, youngest son of Gen. Hugh Mercer of Revolutionary war fame, was the only foster-child of the American republic ever had. April 5, 1777, the Continental congress resolved to erect an appropriate monument to his father, and to educate the boy from that time at the expense of the United States, says the Detroit News. The monument was never erected, but the promises to the living were faithfully performed.

The boy was only five months old when the hero fell in battle at Princeton.

SUGGESTS ANALYZING WORKERS AND JOBS

EVANSTON, Ill.—Business stabilization will come just as much through standardizing methods of analyzing jobs, and the men and women who want jobs, as through controlling output, stabilizing the dollar or related financial or economic methods, according to Walter Dill Scott, President of Northwestern University. Dr. Scott says this in a chapter on "The Psychological Factor in Stabilization" in a new book edited by Lionel D. Edie, entitled "The Stabilization of Business."

In his chapter Dr. Scott hews closely to the line advocating careful judgment of employees, and the analysis of jobs they should hold.

"In the past," says President Scott, "there seems to have been almost no systematic attempt to make what we today speak of as job analysis or occupational description. Ten years ago there was not an industrial organization in America that had any serviceable occupational description of its various jobs. Today most of our large industrial organizations are preparing some form of occupational descriptions. These descriptions state the

The Clay I Use

White, refined super-clay
By Edna Wallace Hopper

Some think that facial clays are new. Not so. Beauties of all ages have employed them. Most of the famous belles of history owed their beauty to complexion clays.

But, until later years, few women fostered and preserved their beauty. Now millions do, and clay is a prime essential.

What I Owe to Clay

About 1900, French beauty experts taught me the use of clay. Now at a grandmother's age, I look like a girl of 19. After 32 years as a stage star, I still play young girls' parts. And millions marvel at my youthful beauty.

I have supplied my methods to scores of friends. They enhanced their beauty by them, and they kept their youth. So I am convinced that most girls and women can do likewise if they will. And I am going to help them.

A Perfect Clay

The clay I use is not the crude and muddy clay so many use to-day. That is out of date. Able scientists in France have been studying clays for 20 years and over. And they have perfected clay.

They have found those rare clays, mineral-laden, which bring maximum results. They have learned how to refine them—to remove the useless mud. The clay I use is white and clean and dainty.

They have found added factors which bring manifold results. So my White Youth Clay will be a revelation to a user of other clays.

Clay is Essential

No girl or woman can look her best without the use of clay. Nor can a woman keep her youthful bloom and contour, as I have. Users of clay stand out in any crowd.

Clay purges the skin of all that clogs it—the causes of sallowness, blackheads and blemishes.

It draws the blood to the skin to nourish and renew it. The result is a rosy afterglow, then a lasting new complexion.

It firms the skin, combats the cause of wrinkles, takes out lines, reduces enlarged pores. Thus it gives and maintains a smooth, soft, baby-like complexion.

The results are amazing—all most unbelievable at first. Many women in 30 minutes seem to drop 10 years. And my girlish face, at my grand old age, shows what constant use can do.

You cannot afford to miss these benefits. They mean too much to you. But use a modern scientific clay. My White Youth Clay, they tell me, is the last word in facial clays.

Edna Wallace Hopper's White Youth Clay is now supplied by all druggists and toilet goods dealers. Price 50c and $1.00 per tube. Also my Youth Cream base and lemon and strawberry. This should follow the clay. Also my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

In fairness to yourself, see what Youth Clay does. You will ever thank me for it. In the first tube fails to delight you, your dealer will return its price.

ADVANCED STUDENTS HEARD IN RECITAL
Pupils of High School of College of Music I. W. C. Present Pleasing Program.
Some of the more advanced music students from the high school who are enrolled in the College of Music at the I. W. C., in the various departments, appeared in a recital in Music Hall last night.
A large and intensely interested audience gave these young performers a sympathetic and appreciative hearing. The work presented proved that the moments that can be commanded by these busy young people, if wisely used, can be transformed into a permanent and priceless possession when directed toward one end under careful guidance.
If this is true of music, it holds good of any other worthwhile pursuit. Fortunate indeed are those young people who are encouraged to accompany a high school education with some supplementary work that makes them, by that much more, assets to the communities which they later serve.
Many of those offering numbers last night had appeared on a similar occasion in December.

COUNCIL CANVASSED RECENT ELECTION VOTE
Session Held Monday Night—Cox Street Residents Ask for Fire Plug—Say Farewell to Ald. Ehnke and Loneragan.
Residents of Cox street last night presented to the city council a petition asking that the fire plug be placed at the corner of Cox and Hockenhull streets or some other nearby location. The petitioners declared that they do not have adequate fire protection.
The petitioners are George W. Cooper, W. H. Wright, Aaron Smith, Milton Black, Eugene Trumbo, William House, Arch Black, Marion Meadows, Rev. A. M. Todd, Ben Camp and James Majors, and the petition was referred to the proper committee for investigation.
The roll call by City Clerk Scott at 7:30 o'clock showed all the members of the council present. After routine business had been given attention the vote of the recent election was canvassed and the totals were found to be as follows:
For Mayor
Crabtree, 3728; Wright, 1512.
For Treasurer
Clement, 3664.
For Clerk
Scott, 2510; Griffith, 2376.
Aldermen
First ward: McGinnis, 437; Blesse, 499; Sullivan, 476.
Second ward: Rowe, 925.
Third ward: Chumley, 746; Biggs, 535.
Fourth ward: Chapin, 1227; Fairbank, 1212.
The council went on record as approving the plan of placing containers for scrap paper and other refuse matter at various street intersections if the company owning the containers makes satisfactory arrangements with merchants for advertising spaces on the containers.
Before adjournment Mayor Crabtree referred to the pleasant relationships that Aldermen Ehnke and Loneragan, who are retiring, have all along maintained with the other members of the council, and expressed the hope that the retiring aldermen will continue their interest in council affairs and be frequent visitors at the council chamber. The council then adjourned.

PLAN OBSERVANCE OF WAR WITH SPAIN
Veterans Are to Hold Numerous Celebrations During Year—Col. O. C. Smith Secured Appropriation for Celebrations.
This being the twenty-fifth anniversary of our war with Spain, the United Spanish War veterans are holding numerous gatherings in commemoration of the different events of that year.
Governor Small has issued a proclamation requesting the people of Illinois to observe the anniversary of the different events in a patriotic manner. The first of these dates is Wednesday, April 25, which is the anniversary of the declaration of war with Spain. It is requested that all patriotic citizens display the flag at both their residences and business places on that day.
Recently an appropriation of $10,000 was made to cover the cost of proper celebrations in the state, and a committee was appointed to handle the arrangements. The appointees were: Adjutant General Carlos E. Black, Hon. Marcus Kavanagh, Judge of the supreme court of Cook county, Capt. Oscar E. Carlstrom, Alder, Col. O. C. Smith of Jacksonville, and Col. John J. Garrity of Chicago.
Col. O. C. Smith was the instigator of the bill and the veterans owe him much credit for the passage of the appropriation. The committee will hold a meeting in Springfield tonight. The appropriation calls for one or more grand meetings during the summer, and, at the meeting, it is Col. Smith's intention to insist on at least two meetings, one in Chicago and one in the down-state district, preferably in Jacksonville, if it can be arranged.
On Wednesday evening, at the LaSalle hotel in Chicago, the department of Illinois will hold an anniversary banquet. Col. and Mrs. Smith will attend.
The local camp of the Spanish War veterans will appreciate it very much if the citizens of Jacksonville will display their flags on Wednesday as a remembrance of the declaration of our war with Spain.

DOKAY MINSTREL SHOW GIVEN AT THE GRAND
Production Monday Night Pleases Large Audience—Program Is Very Much Out of the Ordinary—Will Be Repeated Tonight.
The D. O. K. K. minstrel frolic given at the Grand Opera House last night under the auspices of Ilderim temple No. 62, drew a large audience. The program from start to finish was given in a way to indicate the skillful training given by the Director Doc Crabtree, representing the Harrington Adams, Inc.
It was a colorful, well staged production and the numerous special features made it one of the very best home talent productions Jacksonville has seen in years.
There are four episodes of widely varying character, each complete in itself, and the audience manifested its approval by generous applause.
Carl Richards, who has been conspicuous in other local productions, was the capable interlocutor.
In any such productions music is of course the important feature and the musical numbers were all of high quality, the solos and chorus numbers being equally well done. Comedy features were not lacking and there were some dance numbers that would have done credit to professionals. The production is to be given again tonight and the indications are for another large audience.

Do you know Baseball?

by Billy Evans

Questions.

1. A runner steals second, but over slides and is touched out. Does he get credit for a stolen base?

2. Has a batsman who hits the ball the right to stop and retrace his steps toward the plate if he so desires?

3. If a fielder muffs a foul fly ball, and the batsman is later retired before reaching first, is the muff scored as an error?

4. Ground rules gives batsman two bases on a hit to a certain part of the field. The ball bounds out, is recovered, and batter is thrown out trying to go to third. What is the ruling?

5. Runner on first starts to steal second field umpire is hit by the ball thrown by the catcher. It goes into right field, and runner tries for third but is thrown out. What about the play?

Answers.

1. He does not receive credit for a stolen base.

2. Batsman can stop between first and home just as between any other bases, if he so desires.

3. The fielder is charged with an error on a palpable muff, regardless of what later happens.

4. The ball was dead the moment it went into unrestricted territory. It was impossible to retire the runner, who should have been sent back to second.

5. The ball is in play, and the fielder made a proper play when he threw the runner out at third.

PLA NTO BRING IOWA TEAM HERE

Coach Burns Want Iowa State School to Play Locals During Reunion in June—Will Ask Friends of School to Help Defray Expenses.

Plans are being made by Coach Burns of the school for the deaf, to bring the baseball team of the Iowa school for the deaf to this city during the reunion, which occurs June 7 to 10.

Coach Burns estimates that it will cost about $200 to bring the team here to meet the Illinois team, and it is his intention to ask the friends of the local institution to contribute toward the expense. No soliciting has yet been done, but several of the friends have already voluntarily contributed to the fund.

The Illinois team is going strong, and good reports are being received regarding the Iowa team, so it is considered that if it is possible to get them together during the reunion, the spectators will be treated to a real ball game.

SOX AND BROWNS PLAY TIE GAME

Go Fourteen Innings Without Results—Williams Hit Second Home Run of Season.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 23.—Chicago and St. Louis played 14 innings to a tie today, the game being called on account of darkness. The score was 7 to 7.

The visitors had a two run lead in the ninth, but McManus singled scoring Gerber and Tobin who had walked, tying the score. After the White Sox got away to a three run lead in the first two innings, Gerber singled scoring E. Robertson, who had doubled. Williams hit into the right field bleachers for his second home run of the season, scoring Gerber and Tobin, who also had singled ahead of him.

The Browns could not retain their lead, however, as the visitors tied it in the next inning and took the lead in the eighth. Then came McManus' single which saved the locals' defeat.

AMERICAN VANGUARD OF GOLFERS TO ENGLAND

LONDON, April 23.—The vanguard of the American golfing expeditionary force of 1923—amateurs who have crossed the Atlantic to give the English players a chance at the Walker cup on their home grounds arrived today. They found the game's ancestral homeland most pessimistic regarding the chances for victory in the approaching battles with the Americans, the first of which will take place at Rye next Saturday when the Americans will meet the Oxford-Cambridge golfing society team, composed of E. W. Holderness, Cyril Tolley, Roger Wethered, C. V. L. Hoeman, R. H. DeMontmorency, and Ellis, Briscoe, Darwin, Gitties and Melvin.

Both the early season professional and the Rochester tournament and the qualifying round for the Daily Mail's thousand guineas tournament resulted in a triumph for the old school. Alexander Herd, the 55 year old dean of the game and George Duncan, who has been playing in championship for 15 years pairing off the honors. Thomas Mitchell upon whom many depend to turn aside the attacks of Gene Sarazan and Walter Hagen and who is the leading star to join the professional races since 1913 now seems to be distinctly receding luminary, after a dazzling existence on the highest pinnacle of the game for two years.

All the trouble is with putting. Every day the professionals get shorter and shorter in their green shots, and the fear is everywhere expected that the British game is suffering from a malignant recurrence of the old time malady, "putting paralysis."

BOSTON TAKES FIRST FROM PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, April 23.—Boston took the first game of the series from Philadelphia today, 9 to 6, driving Remmell from the mound in the fifth. The entire Philadelphia team played ragged baseball totalling fine errors and displaying poor judgment on the base plays.

FLOYD JOHNSON GETS DECISION

Majority of Newspapermen at Ringside Give Him Bout on Points—Fight Was Not Exciting and Both Men Exhausted at the End.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 23.—Floyd Johnson, the young western heavyweight outpointed Fred Fulton, the "Moon Fixer" of Rochester, Minnesota, in their 12-round no-decision contest here tonight in the opinion of a majority of the newspapermen at the ring side.

Johnson kept on top of Fulton throughout eleven rounds, pummeled him almost at will, but weakened in the final round and appeared on the verge of being knocked out. Fulton's showing in the last round was not considered enough, however, to overcome the lead his young opponent had piled up in the early rounds.

As a result of the newspapermen's decision, Johnson will be the opponent of Jesse Willard, the former heavyweight champion, in a 15 round match at Yankee Stadium on May 12.

Fulton landed but seldom during tonight's contest, but when he did connect he shook Johnson. The Minnesota slugger made little or no effort to shake off Johnson whose rapid fire punching was too much for him.

Fulton was to his knees once in the first round but did not take a count. Fulton weighed 210 pounds and Johnson 190.

The New York newspapermen at the ringside were unanimous in their decision that gave Johnson the margin on points. Fulton was given three rounds, the last one by a decisive margin and the fifth and eighth by a shade. The fourth and seventh were rated as even and the others were given to Johnson.

ROUND ONE—Johnson rushed at Fulton, landing several light blows to stomach and the giant plasterer retaliated with right and left pokes to the chin. Johnson shifted his attack to the head and jarred Fulton to the ropes. Fulton went to his knees from a right to the jaw but was up immediately.

ROUND THREE—They indulged in a change of rights to stomach at close quarters. The crowd booed. Johnson brought a grunt from Fulton with a left to the ribs. Johnson shook Fulton with right to stomach and left to jaw. Fulton, with left with left frequently but was too far away.

ROUND FOUR—Johnson ran across the ring and Fulton laughed as he held him out of range with his left. Johnson shifted his attack from head to body and back again. His blows did not appear to be very heavy. The crowd booed both men for loafing.

ROUND FIVE—After a minute of light tapping both men started whirling away with lefts and rights. Fulton appearing to have the better effect. Johnson sent a left to the fact that Fulton laughed at.

ROUND SIX—A sharp left brought blood to Johnson's mouth. Johnson sent heavy rights to the jaw. Fulton's long left swings fell into the youngster's jaw and stomach. Johnson seemed tired. He complained that Fulton was hitting low.

ROUND SEVEN—Johnson drove Fulton into a neutral corner with a hard right to jaw but Fulton only smiled at the blow. He seemed to be hurt however. Fulton took hard rights and lefts to chin. Fulton was taking a lot of punishment.

ROUND EIGHT—Both were tired and they hugged to a great extent. Fulton shook Johnson with lefts and rights to jaw. They traded rights to the jaw and staggered to their corners when the round ended.

ROUND NINE—Johnson pummeled Fulton around the ring in a head attack and Fulton made no attempt to protect himself from Johnson's blows and seemed content to send his right or left on occasional jaunts to Johnson's head and body.

ROUND TEN—Johnson landed on Fulton as he pleased but fewer of his blows appeared to hurt. Fulton sent heavy lefts to the stomach. Johnson continued his rapid fire attack with Fulton backing away for the remainder of the round.

ROUND ELEVEN—Johnson pounded Fulton on the jaw and Fulton began to sag. Fulton was blowing heavily and slipped and fell on the ropes, but was up immediately. Johnson kept punching away, but the big man wouldn't drop.

ROUND TWELVE—Johnson renewed his attack to the head. Fulton staggered him with a left to the jaw. Johnson could hardly stand. He held on however, and weathered the storm and was holding as the round ended. He fell into his seat.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Westrope, 1048 Ninth Fayette street, motored to Cass county Sunday evening, calling on Mr. and Mrs. Eben Crum and family.

PURDUE NEXT FOR ILLINI

URBANA, April 23.—Purdue is next on the Illinois baseball card. "Piggy" Lambert's boiler-makers will invade Illinois field on Wednesday, hopeful of making a better showing than they did in their first game with the Illini. It is expected that Lambert will have corrected some of the faults and a better game is expected.

The Illini showed some bad spots when they met Purdue and Coach Lundgren wants to see them corrected. The Boiler-makers showed some latent ability as hitters when they combined their hits on Cliff Jackson but the Illini infield had blown up which made "Jack" look a lot worse than he really was.

"Lefty" O'Connor finished against Purdue neatly and the Elgin lad may be deputized to pitch on Wednesday. Louie Mohr is back after an illness and may be available as well. Wally Rootzger may be able to pitch a little one of these days, but is hardly likely to be called upon except in an emergency.

Out of town games, one with Ohio, April 28, and another with Iowa, April 30, intervene before the next home game after Purdue-then comes Chicago May 2.

Hary Gill's track men will work hard to get in shape for their trip to Des Moines for the Drake games where the coach will start four and one mile teams and perhaps construct a half mile squad. Illinois' greatest prospect for victory is believed to lie in the four mile event but the one mile quartet is likely to hustle the winner.

PITTSBURGH MAKES IT TWO STRAIGHT

Cincinnati, April 23.—Pittsburgh made it two straight from Cincinnati today by bunching hits successfully and putting up a brilliant game in the field. Boehler was hit safely nine times, and gave six bases on balls. He retired in the ninth inning in favor of Glazener. Remarkable fielding plays were made by Marvynville and Bigbee.

SENATORS MAKE IT TWO STRAIGHT

CHICAGO, Ill., April 23.—The sudden cancellation of the Johnny Wilson-Italian Joe Gans match evidently hurt the attendance as there were plenty of vacant seats in the coliseum when the first bout was started.

Tonight's bouts, like the championship matches of three weeks ago, was held under the protection of a court injunction restraining the police, sheriff, coroner and all other officials from interfering. The police lived up to the order of the court and enjoyed the fights.

Henry Mcleair, a St. Louis middleweight, who boxed Gans on a few hours notice proved to be a good punching bag. Mcleair was dizzy in the second round from punches to the chin and body, but managed to stick the eight rounds limit.

IS RECOVERED

The land landing car belonging to Reverend O. C. Bolman which was taken Saturday afternoon while parked on the square was brought back later in the afternoon and placed not far from the place where it was first parked. Mr. Bolman does not know if the car was used by some for riders or if some one intended taking it. Nevertheless the car was returned unharmed.

Brooklyn Brevities

The Sunday school attendance Sunday was 170, only lacking five of the total enrollment for the school. The special number consisted of a chorus, "Onward Christian Soldiers," sung by Frank Bonn's class.

At the church hour, the pastor preached a sermon, "The Dandelion," illustrated from nature. The regular sermon was on the subject, "Why I Believe in God." The great feature of the day was the Candle Light service at 7:30. Every available seat was filled and chairs were brought in to accommodate the crowd. Candles had been previously placed on the chancel partitions and window sills and attached to the ends of the pews. After the singing of the first hymn, the electric lights were switched off and seven girls clad in white, marched down the aisle, lit their candles from the tall light on the pulpit and then proceeded to illuminate the house. The candle-lighters were Wilma Henley, Jeanette Belzer, Lola Moore, Marjorie Bossarte, Ruth Jameson, Ruth Roberts and Louise Leith. In the soft and mystic light, the violator played and sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and a hush fell upon the entire audience that made for reverence and worship. Forty little people then sang "Jesus Bids Us Shine" as children only can sing. One very interesting feature of the program was the Echo Song by a quartet concealed in various parts of the building, which sang in turn, the phrases of the chorus, and on the last verse united in singing the chorus as an echo. The lights were switched on again and the pastor preached a sermon, "Jesus the Light of the World." The audience retired, feeling that it was one of the most helpful and profitable services held at Brooklyn church in years. Next Sunday evening the feature will be a dramatic service put on by the pastor and the choir.

"Telephone Operators Have Rush Periods, As Others Do Who Serve the Public."
The telephone company has rush periods just as have the street cars, the stores, the banks and the stamp window in the post office.
A man will wait in line patiently several minutes to make a deposit in a bank, to buy postage stamps, register a letter, buy a railroad ticket or a seat in the theatre and make no complaint. But if occasionally he has to wait twenty seconds for a telephone operator he feels greatly misused and condemns the service unsparingly.
Let us put a frank question or two to oneself:
"Does any other company or store in town wait on me with such uniform promptness, or cause me so little direct loss of time, as does the Telephone Company?"
"Can I get the service of a street car, a clerk, a salesgirl, a cashier, or of anyone else nearly as quickly, whenever I want it, as I can that of a Telephone Operator?"
"When I push the buzzer on my desk for the stenographer or the messenger, do they always come immediately?"

STOCK PRICES ARE STILL IRREGULAR

Financial Summary

Day's total sales 1,012,000 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 100.73; net loss, 37. High 1923, 105.38; low, 96.96. Twenty railroads averaged 86.47; net loss, 28. High 1923, 90.63; low, 84.53. Total sales (par value) $10,745,000.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Prices in today's stock market continued their irregular and uncertain course of last week, early irregularity given way to heaviness before noon and rallying considerable in the late hours on short covering operations. There was evidence, also in the latter hours of concentrated buying.

Motors, oils, steels and equipments all gave way one to three points. Sugar shares showed strength throughout on further increases in the price of the raw and refined product.

While a majority of the stocks closed fractionally lower on the day, buying during the last hour brought recoveries almost equal to the earlier declines. U. S. Steel which touched 104 1/2 at one time, closed at 105 1/2, an advance of 2.

American Locomotive, which was pushed down in the early selling, rallied sharply and registered a gain of 1 1/2 points. Other equipments, however, failed to muster sufficient strength to overcome the selling pressure and closed fractionally lower.

Railroad shares were comparatively quiet with fractional losses predominating. Chicago Great Western preferred dropped 1 1/2 and Norfolk and Western a point.

Foreign exchanges were fairly firm. Demand sterling was off fractionally being quoted at $4.64 1/2. French francs were somewhat improved at 6.67 cents. Cables from Berlin reported an increase by the Reichsbank of the discount rate from 12 per cent to unprecedented rate of 18 per cent. Marks were off 2 1/2 points at .00424 cents.

The United States government bonds fluctuated within narrow limits the tax exempt 3 1/2 advancing 5/32 of a point while most of the other active issues remained stationary.

Save from $52 to $78 a year

You will be amazed to see how the use of "Bull" Durham will cut down the cost of your smoking.

How is it possible to give you quality at the low cost of 10 cents for 50 cigarettes?

ANSWER: The government tax alone on 50 machine-made cigarettes is 15 cents—5 CENTS MORE THAN THE COST OF 50 "BULL" DURHAM CIGARETTES TO YOU!

The average smoker saves $1 to $1.50 a week by "rolling his own" from "Bull"—or from $52 to $78 a year. This makes quite a Christmas fund—or pays for a fine trip.
